

Misbranding of the article was alleged for the reason that the labels on the cans bore statements regarding the article which were false and misleading, and were intended to be of such a character as to induce the purchaser to believe that the product was olive oil, when, in truth and in fact, it was not; and for the further reason that it was food in package form, and the quantity of the contents was not plainly and conspicuously marked on the outside of the package in terms of weight, measure, or numerical count.

On October 15, 1918, the said Crisafulli Brothers, claimants, having consented to a decree, judgment of condemnation and forfeiture was entered, and it was ordered by the court that the product should be delivered to said claimants upon the payment of the costs of the proceedings and the execution of a bond in the sum of $850, in conformity with section 10 of the act.

6826. Adulteration of eggs. U. S. * * * v. 8 Cases of Eggs. Default decree of condemnation, forfeiture, and destruction. (F. & D. No. 9330. I. S. No. 5901-r. S. No. C-970.)

On August 27, 1918, the United States attorney for the Western District of Missouri, acting upon a report by the Secretary of Agriculture, filed in the District Court of the United States for said district a libel for the seizure and condemnation of 8 cases of eggs, remaining unsold in the original unbroken packages at Kansas City, Mo., alleging that the article had been shipped on or about August 21, 1918, by Abraham Amber, trading as A. Amber Produce Co., Kansas City, Kans., and transported from the State of Kansas into the State of Missouri, charging adulteration in violation of the Food and Drugs Act.

Adulteration of the article was alleged in the libel for the reason that it consisted in whole or in part of decomposed eggs.

On September 28, 1918, no claimant having appeared for the property, judgment of condemnation and forfeiture was entered, and it was ordered by the court that the product should be destroyed by the United States marshal.

6827. Adulteration and misbranding of double distilled water. U. S. * * * v. 16 Bottles * * * of Double Distilled Water. Default decree of condemnation, forfeiture, and destruction. Empty containers ordered sold. (F. & D. No. 9331. I. S. No. 5902-r. S. No. C-977.)

On September 17, 1918, the United States attorney for the District of Kansas, acting upon a report by the Secretary of Agriculture, filed in the District Court of the United States for said district a libel for the seizure and condemnation of 16 bottles of double distilled water, remaining unsold in the original unbroken packages at Leavenworth, Kans., alleging that the article had been shipped on or about August 21, 1918, by the Eads Water Co., Kansas City, Mo., and transported from the State of Missouri into the State of Kansas, charging adulteration and misbranding in violation of the Food and Drugs Act. The article was labeled in part, "Double Distilled Water * * * Eads Water Co. Kansas City, U. S. A."

Adulteration of the article was alleged in substance in the libel for the reason that it consisted in whole or in part of a filthy, decomposed, or putrid animal or vegetable substance.

Misbranding of the article was alleged for the reason that the brand or label on the product was misleading and deceptive, and calculated to induce the purchaser to believe that the product was pure distilled water, whereas, in truth and in fact, it was not.
