

6191. Adulteration of gelatin. U. S. * * * v. 5 Barrels of Gelatin. Consent decree of condemnation and forfeiture. Product ordered released on bond. (F. & D. No. 8586. I. S. No. 16123-p. S. No. W-199.)

On November 13, 1917, the United States attorney for the Western District of Washington, acting upon a report by the Secretary of Agriculture, filed in the District Court of the United States for said district a libel for the seizure and condemnation of five barrels of gelatin, consigned on or about September 15, 1917, by Armour & Co., Chicago, Ill., remaining unsold in the original unbroken packages at Seattle, Wash., alleging that the article had been shipped and transported from the State of Illinois into the State of Washington, and charging adulteration in violation of the Food and Drugs Act.

Adulteration of the article was alleged in the libel for the reason that it contained copper and zinc, added deleterious ingredients, which might render the article injurious to health.

On December 15, 1917, the said Armour & Co., claimant, having admitted the allegations of the libel, judgment of condemnation and forfeiture was entered, and it was ordered by the court that the product should be released to said claimant upon the payment of the costs of the proceedings, and the execution of a bond in the sum of $500, in conformity with section 10 of the act.

CARL VROOMAN,
Acting Secretary of Agriculture.
