On December 15, 1920, the United States attorney for the District of New Jersey, acting upon a report by the Secretary of Agriculture, filed in the District Court of the United States for said district a libel for the seizure and condemnation of 289 cases, containing 578 cans, of liquid whole eggs, at Jersey City, N. J., alleging that the article had been shipped by the Parsons Poultry & Egg Co., Parsons, Kans., on or about June 22, 1920, and transported from the State of Kansas into the State of New Jersey, and charging adulteration in violation of the Food and Drugs Act. The article was labeled in part: (Can) "National Poultry and Egg Co. Atchison, Kansas, Packers. Pure Sweet Wholesome Eggs * * *"

Adulteration of the article was alleged in the libel for the reason that it consisted wholly or in part of a filthy, decomposed, and putrid animal substance.

On December 20, 1921, no claimant having appeared for the property, judgment of condemnation and forfeiture was entered, and it was ordered by the court that the product be destroyed by the United States marshal.

On November 15, 1920, the United States attorney for the Northern District of California, acting upon a report by the Secretary of Agriculture, filed in the District Court of the United States for said district a libel, and on November 22, 1920, an amended libel, praying the seizure and condemnation of 16½ dozen bottles of Grantillas, remaining in the original unbroken packages at San Francisco, Calif., alleging that the article had been shipped by the Dr. Richards Dyspepsia Tablet Assoc., New York, N. Y., in part March 9, 1920, and in part June 23, 1920, and transported from the State of New York into the State of California, and charging misbranding in violation of the Food and Drugs Act, as amended.

Analysis of a sample of the article by the Bureau of Chemistry of this department showed that it consisted of tablets containing extracts of plant drugs, including cramp bark and a laxative drug.

Misbranding of the article was alleged in substance in the libel for the reason that it was labeled in part on the bottle containing the said article and in the accompanying wrapper and circular as follows, (bottle) "* * * A medicine prepared especially for diseases affecting ladies and young ladies. Grantillas contains the elements required by the genital organs of women," (wrapper) "* * * A medicine prepared especially for diseases affecting ladies and young ladies.
