

3834. Adulteration of frozen eggs. U. S. * * * v. 18 Cans of Frozen Eggs. Default decree of condemnation, forfeiture, and destruction. (F. & D. No. 6296. L. S. No. 731-k. -S. No. E-220.)

On February 15, 1915, the United States attorney for the District of Massachusetts, acting upon a report by the Secretary of Agriculture, filed in the District Court of the United States for said district a libel for the seizure and condemnation of 18 cans of frozen eggs, remaining unsold in the original unbroken packages at Boston, Mass., alleging that the product had been shipped and transported from the State of Rhode Island into the State of Massachusetts, and charging adulteration in violation of the Food and Drugs Act.

Adulteration of the product was alleged in the libel for the reason that it consisted in part of a filthy, decomposed, and putrid animal substance.

On March 17, 1915, no claimant having appeared for the property, judgment of condemnation and forfeiture was entered, and it was ordered by the court that the product should be destroyed by the United States marshal.
