

South Packing Co., Arcadia, Fla., alleging that the article had been shipped from Arcadia, Fla., in two consignments, on or about March 19 and 25, 1927, respectively, and transported from the State of Florida into the State of Pennsylvania, and charging adulteration in violation of the food and drugs act. A portion of the article was labeled in part: (Wrapper) "Sunny South Packing Co. Arcadia, Florida. Arcadia Ace." The remainder of the said article was labeled in part: (Wrapper): "Selected Citrus Florida Fruit Carefully Packed."

Examination of the article by this department showed that it consisted in whole or in part of frost-damaged fruit.

Adulteration of the article was alleged in the libels for the reason that it consisted in whole or in part of a decomposed vegetable substance. Adulteration was alleged with respect to a portion of the product for the further reason that a substance, frozen tangerines, had been substituted wholly or in part for the said article.

On April 16 and 18, 1927, respectively, no claimant having appeared for the property, judgments of condemnation and forfeiture were entered, and it was ordered by the court that the product be destroyed by the United States marshal.

15042. Adulteration of grapefruit. U. S. v. 420 Boxes of Grapefruit. Consented decree of condemnation and forfeiture. Product released under bond. (F. & D. No. 21755. I. S. No. 12696-x. S. No. W-2108.)

On March 2, 1927, the United States attorney for the District of Colorado, acting upon a report by the Secretary of Agriculture, filed in the District Court of the United States for said district a libel praying seizure and condemnation of 420 boxes of grapefruit, remaining in the original unbroken packages at Denver, Colo., consigned by the Lakeland Co., Lakeland, Fla., alleging that the article had been shipped from Lakeland, Fla., on or about February 22, 1927, and transported from the State of Florida into the State of Colorado, and charging adulteration in violation of the food and drugs act. The article was labeled in part: "Lapaco The Lakeland Company, Lakeland, Fla."

Examination of the article by this department showed that it consisted wholly or in part of frost-damaged oranges.

It was alleged in the libel that the article was adulterated, in that it consisted in whole or in part of a decomposed vegetable substance, to wit, decomposed or frozen grapefruit.

On March 4, 1927, the Fruit Distributors, Inc., Jacksonville, Fla., claimant, having admitted the allegations of the libel and having consented to the entry of a decree, judgment of condemnation and forfeiture was entered, and it was ordered by the court that the product be released to the said claimant upon payment of the costs of the proceedings and the execution of a good and sufficient bond, conditioned in part that it be examined under the supervision of this department and all decomposed or frozen fruit be destroyed.
