15081. Adulteration of rum drops. U. S. v. 52 Boxes and 20 Boxes of Rum Drops. Default decree of condemnation, forfeiture, and destruction. (F. & D. No. 21345. I. S. Nos. 12298-x, 12299-x. S. No. C-5250.)

On or about October 27, 1926, the United States attorney for the Eastern District of Michigan, acting upon a report by the Secretary of Agriculture, filed in the District Court of the United States for said district a libel praying seizure and condemnation of 52 one-pound boxes and 20 five-pound boxes of rum drops, remaining in the original unbroken packages at Detroit, Mich., consigned June 19, 1926, alleging that the article had been shipped by D'Orlando & Co., from Boston, Mass., and transported from the State of Massachusetts into the State of Michigan, and charging adulteration in violation of the food and drugs act. The article was labeled in part: "Marathon Chocolates Genuine Rum Drops * * * D'Orlando Company Boston, Mass."

It was alleged in the libel that the article was adulterated, in violation of section 7 of said act, in the case of confectionery, in that it contained a spirituous liquor, alcohol, and, in the case of food, in that it consisted in whole or in part of a filthy, decomposed, or putrid animal substance.

On December 7, 1926, no claimant having appeared for the property, judgment of condemnation and forfeiture was entered, and it was ordered by the court that the product be destroyed by the United States marshal.

15082. Misbranding of cottonseed meal and cottonseed cake. U. S. v. 200 Sacks of Cottonseed Meal, et al. Consent decree of condemnation and forfeiture. Product released under bond. (F. & D. No. 21424. I. S. Nos. 4145-x, 4146-x, 4147-x. S. No. C-5277.)

On or about December 11, 1926, the United States attorney for the District of Kansas, acting upon a report by the Secretary of Agriculture, filed in the District Court of the United States for said district a libel praying seizure and condemnation of 200 sacks of cottonseed meal and 200 sacks of cottonseed cake, remaining in the original unbroken packages at Atwood, Kans., alleging that the article had been shipped by the Planters Cottonseed Products Co., from Dallas, Texas, on or about November 17, 1926, and transported from the State of Texas into the State of Kansas, and charging misbranding in violation of the food and drugs act. The article was labeled in part: "Guaranteed Analysis Protein, not less than 43%."

It was alleged in the libel that the article was misbranded, in that the statement "Guaranteed Analysis Protein, not less than 43%," borne on the label, was false and misleading and deceived and misled the purchaser to believe that the said article contained not less than 43 per cent of protein, whereas it contained a smaller quantity.

On January 8, 1927, the Planters Cottonseed Products Co., claimant, having consented to the entry of a decree, judgment of condemnation and forfeiture was entered, and it was ordered by the court that the product be released to the said claimant upon payment of the costs of the proceedings and the execution of a bond in the sum of $500, conditioned in part that it not be sold or offered for sale in violation of the law.
