

5406. Adulteration of scallops. U. S. * * * v. 18 Cans of Scallops. Default decree of condemnation, forfeiture, and destruction. (F. & D. No. 7937. I. S. No. 1077-m. S. No. B-778.)

On December 14, 1916, the United States attorney for the Southern District of New York, acting upon a report by the Secretary of Agriculture, filed in the District Court of the United States for said district a libel for the seizure and condemnation of 18 cans of scallops, remaining unsold in the original unbroken packages at New York, N. Y., alleging that the article had been shipped on or about December 9, 1916, by J. H. Riggin & Co., Morehead City, N. C., and transported from the State of North Carolina into the State of New York, and charging adulteration in violation of the Food and Drugs Act.

Adulteration of the article was alleged, in substance, in the libel for the reason that water had been mixed and packed therewith so as to reduce and lower and injuriously affect its quality and strength, and had been substituted in part for said article.

On January 4, 1917, no claimant having appeared for the property, judgment of condemnation and forfeiture was entered, and it was ordered by the court that the product should be destroyed by the United States marshal.

CARL VROOMAN, Acting Secretary of Agriculture.
