

and condemnation of 52 cases of preserves, at Albuquerque, N. Mex., alleged that the articles had been shipped by Libby, McNeill & Libby, from Bl Island, Ill., February 3, 1926, and transported from the State of Illinois into the State of New Mexico, and charging adulteration and misbranding in violation of the food and drugs act. The articles were labeled in part "Rival Brand * * * Artificially Colored, Added Phosphoric Acid, Corn Syrup, Sugar, Apple Pectin Blackberry (or "Strawberry," or "Peach," "Loganberry," or "Red Raspberry," or "Pineapple") Preserves, Packed Peter J. Kasper Co., Chicago, Ill."

It was alleged in substance in the libel that the articles were adulterated and misbranded, in that the said statements upon the cases and lab regarding the said articles, were false and misleading and were calculated to deceive and did deceive the purchaser since a substance deficient in fruit had been mixed and packed with the said preserves so as to reduce, lower and injuriously affect their quality and strength, and had been substituted wholly or in part for phosphoric acid, corn sirup, sugar, apple pectin fruit preserves, which the articles purported to be.

On August 8, 1927, the Peter J. Kasper Co., Chicago, Ill., having appeared as claimant for the property, and the court having found that the products should be labeled, in part, "Imitation Preserves," judgment was entered ordering that the products be released to the claimant upon payment of the costs of the proceedings and the execution of a good and sufficient bond, and should not be sold or disposed of until correctly labeled.

15387. Misbranding of middlings. U. S. v. 300 Bags of Middlings. Cons decree of condemnation and forfeiture. Product released upon bond. (F. & D. No. 21980. I. S. No. 13326-x. S. No. 14.)

On July 19, 1927, the United States attorney for the Middle District Pennsylvania, acting upon a report by the Secretary of Agriculture, filed the District Court of the United States for said district a libel praying seizure and condemnation of 300 bags of middlings, remaining in the original unbroken packages at Gettysburg, Pa., alleging that the article had been shipped by Continental Milling Co., from Ellicott City, Md., on or about June 24, 1927, and transported from the State of Maryland into the State of Pennsylvania and charging misbranding in violation of the food and drugs act as amended. The article was labeled in part: "100 Lbs. Continental Choice Middlings * * * The Continental Milling Co., Ellicott City, Md."

Misbranding of the article was alleged in the libel for the reason that statement "100 Lbs." borne on the label, was false and misleading and deceived and misled the purchaser. Misbranding was alleged for the further reason that the article was food in package form and the quantity of the contents was not plainly and conspicuously marked on the outside of the packages.

On September 20, 1927, the Continental Milling Co., Ellicott City, Md., claimant, having admitted the allegations of the libel and having consented to the entry of a decree, judgment of condemnation and forfeiture was entered, and it was ordered by the court that the product be released to said claimant upon payment of the costs of the proceedings and the execution of a bond in the sum of $1,500, conditioned in part that it not be sold or otherwise disposed of until examined and passed by this department.

15388. Adulteration and misbranding of butter. U. S. v. Harrow-Taylor Butter Co. Plea of guilty. Fine, $50. (F. & D. No. 21594. I. S. 2274-x, 2284-x, 5082-x.)

On August 12, 1927, the United States attorney for the Western District Missouri, acting upon a report by the Secretary of Agriculture, filed in District Court of the United States for said district an information against Harrow-Taylor Butter Co., a corporation, Kansas City, Mo., alleging shipment by said company, in violation of the food and drugs act, in various consignments, on or about July 26, and August 5, 1926, respectively, from the State of Missouri into the State of Ohio, and on or about July 20, 1926, from the State of Missouri into the State of Maryland, of quantities of butter, which were adulterated and misbranded. A portion of the article was labeled, in part "Richfield Creamery Butter * * * Harrow-Taylor Butter Co. Kansas City." The remainder of the said article was labeled, in part "Creamery Butter."

It was alleged in the information that the article was adulterated, in that substance containing less than 80 per cent by weight of milk fat had substituted for butter, a product which must contain not less than 80 per cent by weight of milk fat as prescribed by the act of March 4, 1923, which the said article purported to be.

Misbranding was alleged for the reason that the statement, to wit, "Creamery Butter," borne on the label, was false and misleading in that the said statement represented that the article was butter, to wit, a product containing not less than 80 per cent by weight of milk fat as prescribed by law, and for the further reason that it was labeled as aforesaid so as to deceive and mislead the purchaser into the belief that it was butter, to wit, a product containing not less than 80 per cent by weight of milk fat as prescribed by law, whereas it was not butter as prescribed by law but was a product containing less than 80 per cent by weight of milk fat.

On September 1, 1927, a plea of guilty to the information was entered on behalf of the defendant company, and the court imposed a fine of $50.

15389. Misbranding of canned tomatoes. U. S. v. 278 Cases, et al., of Canned Tomatoes. Decrees of condemnation and forfeiture entered. Product released under bond. (F. & D. Nos. 21427, 21428. I. S. Nos. 13584-x, 13585-x, 13593-x, 13594-x. S. No. E-5678.)

On or about December 6, and December 7, 1926, respectively, the United States attorney for the Southern District of Florida, acting upon a report by the Secretary of Agriculture, filed in the District Court of the United States for said district libels praying seizure and condemnation of 702 cases of canned tomatoes, remaining unsold, in part at Jacksonville, Fla., and in part at Tampa, Fla., alleging that the article had been shipped by W. E. Robinson & Co., in part from Tipton, Va., and in part from Bel Air and Baltimore, Md., in various consignments, on or about August 27, September 3, September 28, and October 9, 1926, respectively, and had been transported from the States of Virginia and Maryland, respectively, into the State of Florida, and charging misbranding in violation of the food and drugs act. The article was labeled in part: "Osceola Brand Tomatoes Net Weight of Contents 1 Pound 3 Ounces (or "Net Weight of Contents 2 Pounds")."

Misbranding of the article was alleged in the libels for the reason that the statements "Net Weight of Contents 1 Pound 3 Ounces," and "Net Weight of Contents 2 Pounds," borne on the labels of the respective sized cans, were false and misleading and deceived and misled the purchaser, and for the further reason that it was food in package form and the quantity of the contents was not plainly and conspicuously marked on the outside of the package.

On March 17, and June 13, 1927, respectively, W. E. Robinson & Co. having appeared as claimant for the property and having admitted the allegations of the libels, judgments of condemnation and forfeiture were entered, and it was ordered by the court that the product be released to the said claimant upon the execution of bonds totaling $1,100, conditioned in part that it be relabeled or overhauled so as to comply with the law, and it was further ordered by the court that the claimant pay the costs of the proceedings.

15390. Adulteration of canned cherries. U. S. v. 54 Cases of Pie Makers' Special Sour Cherries. Default decree of condemnation, forfeiture, and destruction. (F. & D. No. 22059. I. S. No. 20057-x. S. No. 99.)

On September 15, 1927, the United States attorney for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania, acting upon a report by the Secretary of Agriculture, filed in the District Court of the United States for said district a libel praying seizure and condemnation of 54 cases of pie makers' special red sour cherries, remaining in the original unbroken packages at Philadelphia, Pa., alleging that the article had been shipped by G. S. Salter, Victor, N. Y., on or about July 23, 1927, and transported from the State of New York into the State of Pennsylvania, and charging adulteration in violation of the food and drugs act. The article was labeled in part: "Pie Makers Special Red Sour Cherries * * * Packed by G. C. Salter, Manchester, N. Y."

It was alleged in the libel that the article was adulterated, in that it consisted in whole or in part of a filthy, decomposed, or putrid vegetable substance.

On October 5, 1927, no claimant having appeared for the property, judgments of condemnation and forfeiture were entered, and it was ordered by the court that the product be destroyed by the United States marshal.
