

On August 8, 9, and 16, 1934, the United States attorney for the Western District of New York, acting upon reports by the Secretary of Agriculture, filed in the district court libels praying seizure and condemnation of 56 crates of blueberries at Buffalo, N. Y. On August 17 and 23, 1934, libels were filed in the District of Massachusetts against 159 crates of blueberries at Boston and Springfield, Mass. It was alleged in the libels that the article had been shipped in interstate commerce by W. C. Robinson, from Harrington, Maine, and that it was adulterated in violation of the Food and Drugs Act. The shipments were made between the dates of August 6 and August 22, 1934.

The article was alleged to be adulterated in that it consisted in whole or in part of a filthy, decomposed, or putrid vegetable substance.

On August 29 and September 11, 1934, no claimant having appeared, judgments of condemnation and forfeiture were entered and it was ordered that the product be destroyed.
