

PRODUCT: 1,998 cases, each containing 24 1-pound, 3-ounce cans, of tomatoes at Shreveport, La.

LABEL, IN PART: "Wharton's Pride Tomatoes."

NATURE OF CHARGE: Misbranding, Section 403 (h) (1), the product fell below the standard of quality for canned tomatoes, since the drained weight was less than 50 percent of the weight of water required to fill the container and since it failed to meet the requirements of the standard for color, and its label failed to bear the substandard legend; and, Section 403 (h) (2), the product failed to meet the standard of fill of container for canned tomatoes, since the fill of container of the article was a fill of less than 90 percent of the total capacity of the container, and its label failed to bear a statement that it fell below the standard.

DISPOSITION: January 6, 1947. The Wharton Canning Co. having appeared as claimant and the allegations of the libel having been found to be true, judgment of condemnation was entered and the product was ordered released under bond, to be brought into compliance with the law, under the supervision of the Food and Drug Administration.
